

Jobs

in Architecture

A free service from the Royal Incorporation of Architects in Scotland

Application form

for architectural practices and chartered architects looking to employ staff in Scotland

About the position

job title

location

e.g. 'Glasgow', 'North of Scotland', 'Central Belt', etc.

salary

e.g. '£25,000 per annum', '£ competitive', etc.

contract length

e.g. 'Permanent', 'Fixed one year contract', 'Maternity cover', etc.

full / part time

e.g. 'Full time', 'Two days per week', '20 hours per week', etc.

keywords

e.g. "administration", "assistant", "part 1", "technician", etc. You can provide multiple keywords, separated by commas.

position summary

The 'headline' about the position, to be as enticing as possible. Between 30 and 50 words preferred. Plain text.

position details

Full information about the position, including requirements, responsibilities, etc. Maximum 300 words..

Applications closing date

 / /

Day

Month

Year

About you

practice name

The name of your practice or your name if applying as an individual architect.

practice address

The address of your practice or place of business.

postcode

The postcode of your practice or place of business.

telephone

The contact number that applicants can use for enquiries. Leave blank if you do not want applicants to contact you via phone.

email

The email address that applicants can use for enquiries. Leave blank if you do not want applicants to contact you via email.

website

Your practice website that applicants can browse for further information about your practice.

logo Please provide your logo to accompany your advertisement.

The logo should be supplied via email along with this form as a high resolution JPEG.

The legal bit

- terms and conditions
1. The RIAS provides the service "Jobs in Architecture", on the website rias.org.uk, as a free service for members of the RIAS.
 2. Content of adverts must abide by RIAS by-laws and anti-discrimination policy.
 3. Adverts will usually appear on the site within 24 hours of the form being received, assuming all information is provided.
 4. Adverts will remain on the site until their closing date, when they will be automatically removed from display. They can be republished after that date with a new closing date if requested.

I agree to the terms and conditions for the display of this advertisement.

signed

Please provide an electronic version of your signature in the box above.

Please return your completed form by email to membership@rias.org.uk, along with a high resolution version of your logo in JPEG format. You can also supply a landscape photograph or render which provides an example of the architecture that your practice has built or is developing.